Objective

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the structure and scope of OFAC, EU, and UK sanctions regimes.
- Identify sanctions risks across customers, transactions, goods, and geographies.
- Implement effective sanctions screening, due diligence, and escalation processes.
- Manage licences, exemptions, and reporting obligations.
- Design and maintain a practical sanctions compliance programme.
- Respond to breaches, investigations, and enforcement actions effectively.

Audience

This programme is ideal for:

- Compliance Officers and Risk Managers.
- Trade Compliance and Export Control Professionals.
- Legal Counsels and Regulatory Affairs Teams.
- Banking, Financial Crime, and AML Professionals.
- Supply Chain, Logistics, and Procurement Managers.
- Executives overseeing international operations and cross-border trade.

Training Methodology

The course combines instructor-led briefings, regulatory analysis, practical scenarios, and case-based discussions. Participants work through sanctions screening exercises, transaction assessments, and compliance design templates aligned with global best practices.

Summary

This intensive and practice-oriented programme equips professionals with the knowledge and tools required to manage international sanctions and trade compliance across OFAC (US), EU, and UK regimes. The course focuses on real-world application—helping organisations identify sanctions risks, implement effective controls, and respond to regulatory changes with confidence.

Participants will learn how sanctions frameworks operate, how to conduct screening and due diligence, manage licences and exemptions, and design compliance programmes that withstand regulatory scrutiny. Through case studies and scenarios, the programme bridges legal requirements with operational execution across trade, finance, logistics, and compliance functions.
