IFRS in Practice: Interpreting Standards for Real-World Reporting

Duration: 5 Days

Language: en

Course Code: PF1-154

Objective

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Interpret core IFRS principles and apply them to real-world financial reporting scenarios.
- Understand the IFRS conceptual framework and its role in professional judgement.
- Apply key IFRS standards to the preparation and presentation of financial statements.
- Identify common implementation challenges and avoid frequent reporting errors.
- Analyse financial information prepared under IFRS for decision-making and compliance purposes.

Audience

This course is ideal for:

- Finance and accounting professionals seeking practical IFRS application skills.
- Financial analysts and reporting officers.
- Internal auditors and compliance professionals.
- Business managers involved in financial decision-making.
- Professionals transitioning to IFRS-based reporting environments.

Training Methodology

The course combines instructor-led explanations with practical examples, applied case studies, and guided discussions. Participants will engage with real-world reporting scenarios to strengthen interpretation skills and develop confidence in applying IFRS standards accurately and consistently.

Summary

This course is designed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and their practical application in real-world financial reporting. Rather than focusing solely on definitions and rules, the programme emphasises interpretation, professional judgement, and implementation of key IFRS requirements in day-to-day financial reporting scenarios.

Participants will gain a clear understanding of how IFRS standards are applied in practice, how financial information is presented and disclosed, and how common reporting challenges are addressed in professional environments. The course combines conceptual explanations with practical examples and case-based discussions to support confident and compliant financial reporting.
